1563965	Daniel was an excellent TF and I can't believe he took on the TF work of this course himself. He, like Professor Altonji, brought a wealth of econometrics experience to class and gave great feedback on the problem sets, exams, and office hours. Thanks for offering both sections and office hours for us. We really appreciate you!
1564167	Excellent TA
1573106	He responds in a timely manner and is helpful when answering questions.
1579043	Great
1585256	Daniel was so helpful for all of us this semester and added so much clarity to the material that we learned in lectures. Sections were always super useful for exams/problem sets/projects and Daniel also hosted extensive office hours throughout the week that were critical in building my understanding of the course material. Daniel also provided excellent answers to our questions on Ed. Very, very grateful for Daniel's fantastic instruction this semester. The economics department is lucky to have him as both a student and as an instructor.
1587694	Good job explaining concepts.
1587901	Daniel was easily the most involved and helpful Teaching Fellow I have ever had at Yale. His office hours were extremely helpful. His discussion sections were very well taught and engaging. In addition to those, Daniel also would respond to emails extremely fast, usually within 5 minutes. I attribute a lot of my great experience within this course to Daniel.
1588855	Daniel was an excellent TF. I don't think that I would have survived the course without his guidance. He was wonderful at explaining the concepts and was crucial to my exam preparation.
1590658	Daniel was incredibly supportive as a TF.
1591896	Daniel was willing to help and took his time explaining concepts. I think it might've been good to have more than one teaching fellow, because with the number of students in the course it seems excessive to put all the office hours and grading on him.
1592773	Very helpful.
1593043	Daniel is great.
1597646	Great TF, very supportive and really understanding of the material
